LEGAL SELF-DEFENSE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES

A MULTI-MEDIA INTERACTIVE APPROACH Evaluating Real World Self-Defense Events Through News Releases, Videos, Case Studies and Vignettes

The national and local news is filled with stories of shootings, knifings, and the use of force both legal and criminal. In this interactive visual session, you will learn about the law of self-defense through news videos, newspaper reports, case studies and vignettes. This is NOT your typical course, but an interactive, visual presentation intended to capture your attention while providing you with examples of how to defend yourself legally while maintaining both your safety and innocence. If you have a LTC, do yourself a favor and learn about the law of self-defense so you can stay both safe and legal. There is no other course on the law of self-defense like this being offered anywhere. Consider registering for this seminar.

Don't miss this insightful interactive program. If you own a gun or ever need to defend yourself or your family with or without firearms, this information could mean the difference between going home or going to jail.
